News Release

The Gibson County Sheriff's Merit Board met for its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, January 19, 2016. The Sheriff's Merit Board is made up of five members, three of whom are selected by the Sheriff and two are voted on by the Deputies. This committee meets monthly and makes decisions pertaining to standard operating procedures, hiring and disciplinary actions. At the recent meeting, board members elected Bruce Adams as President and Brenda Penrod as Secretary. Other members of the Merit Board are Joe Maxey, Jim McDonald and Jon Adams.

The 2016 meetings of the Gibson County Sheriff's Merit Board will be on the third Monday of every month. Meetings start at 12:00 Noon in the Gibson County Community Corrections Conference room, located at 112 E. Emerson Street, Princeton, Indiana.
