For Immediate Release:

On April 2, 2014 at 2:34 a.m. Gibson County Sheriff's Deputies and Princeton Police Officers went to 320 West Emerson to attempt to serve a probation violation warrant on Charles Brad Sherman age 49 of Princeton. Upon arriving at the residence the homeowner gave consent to search the property to the officers. While officers were searching the residence Deputy Bryan Small observed Mr. Sherman walk up onto the porch of the residence. Once Mr. Sherman realized officers were in the residence he began to flee. Deputy Small pursued Mr. Sherman for a short distance before he was apprehended. Before being transported to the Gibson County Jail Mr. Sherman was patted down for contraband, and that pat down turned up a hypodermic needle and a substance that field tested positive for Methamphetamines.

Charles Brad Sherman age 49 of Princeton is being held without bail at the Gibson County Jail.

He is charged with:

Probation Violation on Dealing Methamphetamines.

Possession of Methamphetamines

Unlawful Possession of a Hypodermic Syringe

Assisting Deputy Small in this investigation was Sgt. Brad Nixon of the Gibson County Sheriff's Office. Also assisting was Sgt. Steve McNeece and Officer Jason Swan.
